Cakes, muffins and cupcakes

- Delicious and easy-to-make treats that are popular for everyday and festive occasions, especially when decorated appropriately
- The batter is simple yet incredibly versatile—ranging from classic to vanilla or chocolate, and can be enhanced with berries, fruits, nuts, or spices
- Light, airy texture and juicy flavor highlight the special charm of each cake, muffin, or cupcake

Cakes

The batter is moderately sweet, made with a butter or oil base, and is dense and soft, though less airy than cupcakes

It can contain raisins, fruits, candied peel, or chocolate

Can be decorated with glaze, powdered sugar, etc. Cakes can be both large or smaller (e.g., banana or raisin cake)

Muffins

Similar to small cakes, muffins have a less sweet batter and are more crumbly and dense

They often contain berries, fruits, nuts, or even vegetables, and can also be savory.

Usually served without glaze or with minimal decoration, like powdered sugar

Muffins are more of an everyday snack or breakfast option

Cupcakes

Mini cakes with a lighter, sweeter, and airier batter, similar to a sponge cake

They can have jam or cream fillings and are always decorated with frosting, glaze, or sugar figures, as they are often served at celebrations

Cupcakes are more of a dessert or a festive treat
