

Task 5. Read the fact file below and test your understanding by taking the quiz:

(CLIL Lesson Plan -Traditional Lithuanian Dumplings Šaltanosių)

- Šaltanosių are traditional Lithuanian sweet dumplings filled with curd.
- The name means “cold noses” — a fun nickname often used for children.
- They are usually served with sour cream, sugar, or fruit jam.
- Šaltanosių are popular during weekends and childhood celebrations.
- Similar dumplings exist in other countries, like pierogi (Poland) and varenyky (Ukraine).

Quiz

Choose the correct answer

1. What is inside Šaltanosių?
  - a) Meat
  - b) Potatoes
  - c) Curd
  - d) Mushrooms
2. What does the word “Šaltanosių” mean?
  - a) Hot dumplings
  - b) Cold noses
  - c) White flour
  - d) Dumpling hats
3. When are Šaltanosių usually eaten?
  - a) Only during national holidays
  - b) In summer only
  - c) At weekends and at childhood celebrations
  - d) Only in restaurants
4. What do people usually eat Šaltanosių with?
  - a) Sour cream and jam
  - b) Butter and onions
  - c) Tomato sauce
  - d) Ketchup and mustard
5. Which of these is a similar dumpling from another country?
  - a) Gyoza (Japan)
  - b) Pierogi (Poland)
  - c) Tacos (Mexico)

d) Croissant (France)

True or False

6. Šaltanosiai are always salty.

True  False

7. The name is also a nickname for children.

True  False

8. Halushky are similar to Šaltanosiai.

True  False

- Which part of this tradition is the most interesting to you? Why?
- What dumplings are popular in your family?
- When do you eat them?

